

ASSIGNMENT SEVEN

Now you've arrived! The last assignment is putting what you've learned into practice.

You're going to make 3 new pieces that will finally represent your true identity, your ideal aesthetic, and the visual brand you've always dreamed of.

CREATE 3 NEW PIECES FOLLOWING YOUR STYLE RULESHEET:

Follow the rules from your style rulesheet and create 3 new pieces of art.

Send pictures of these pieces via email to acupofcloudy@gmail.com and get a critique in response!

All submissions are critiqued based on cohesiveness, not skill, so you must submit all 3 images.

This assignment may take longer than the others based on the nature of the task, but don't rush! Your signature style and new creative process will take as long as it takes. Once you get a good routine going it will feel more streamlined.

Happy creating!
